2023 RMP ARIA

1. Eligibility

The RMP Aria Competition is open to all classical singers, amateur or professional. Eligible entrants must be:

- i) under 35 years at 12 August, 2023
- ii) an Australasian citizen or current resident.

Any previous or current member of the RMP choir, or a previously engaged soloist with the RMP is still permitted to enter the competition, provided they meet the two criteria above.

2. Repertoire for finalists

Contestants must perform repertoire strictly from oratorio, and no operatic repertoire or art song / lied etc will be permitted, irrespective of period. Any recitative, aria, or excerpt will be permitted from oratorio, sacred cantata, mass, mass fragment, liturgical work or a musical composition (originally or generally not intended to be staged) whose text is generally religious, serious or philosophical in nature.

Any queries regarding permitted repertoire should be directed to the RMP Artistic Director, Mr Andrew Wailes via email: musicdirector@rmp.org.au or SMS: 0433 661 971

Entrants should consult their teachers / coaches and give careful consideration to selecting repertoire which showcases their ability to perform in an appropriate stylistic manner, and which best displays their vocal quality, flexibility, musical style, range of expression, delivery of text, and vocal technique.

All entrants MUST perform at least one recitative and at least one aria, up to twelve minutes in total duration of music.

Entrants may choose to sing less than twelve minutes, or may choose to perform more than two items, to the total duration of twelve minutes. (A 30 second grace period will be allowed for interpretation variations on the night). Applause between items will not be included in time limitation.

Items do not need to be performed from memory, nor in the original language, but 4 printed copies of music to be performed must be supplied to the official accompanist and judges that is in the same language and key as that being performed. THIS SHOULD BE BROUGHT AT THE TIME OF YOUR FINAL SOUNDCHECK / REHEARSAL ON THE DAY.

3. Selection process and Accompaniment

Depending on the number and quality of applicants, finalists will be selected without performing in live heats, based on written application, supporting materials and recorded support material provided.

If the quality and number of applicants requires a live performance prior to the final, applicants will be contacted directly to discuss possible live performance times / dates. Up to eight finalists and a reserve finalist, but no fewer than six finalists will be selected to perform before a public audience at Melbourne Recital Centre with the official accompanist Stefan Cassomenos on Saturday 12 August 2023 at 5pm.

Rehearsal times will be allocated in MRC between 9am and 12pm that morning, and prior to the day of the final at a time mutually convenient. Singers will need to contact Stefan in advance regarding prior rehearsal.

4. Adjudication

Adjudication will take place over two stages: Application for semi final / final appearance, and the Final in the form of a public concert at Melbourne Recital Centre on SATURDAY 12 AUGUST 2023 at 5pm.

Contestants will be judged on:

- Performance
- Technique
- Stylistic performance and interpretation
- Stage Presentation
- Potential as an oratorio soloist

If required, eligible entrants may be asked to sing for and be interviewed by the Chair of the Adjudicators, Mr Andrew Wailes (RMP Artistic Director and Chief conductor) who will be assisted by at least one other adjudication panel member in the final selection process. NB: This is not usually required.

Mr Andrew Wailes will chair the adjudication panel for the Final. He will be joined by Ms Sally-Anne Russell and one other specialist judge, and the official accompanist Mr Stefan Cassomenos.

In the case of a deadlock, the Chair of the Adjudication panel will have the casting vote. The decision of the Adjudicators is final.

5. Documents and supporting material

Entrants must complete and sign the official entry form and lodge it by NO LATER THAN 5pm TUESDAY 1st AUGUST 2023.

All entries should be emailed to: musicdirector@rmp.org.au

All emailed entries will be acknowledged on receipt. If you do not get an acknowledgement email, please contact us again to ensure your email has reached us.

Phone enquiries should be directed to Andrew Wailes +61 (0)433 661 971, or by email: musicdirector@rmp.org.au.

NB. There is no entry fee for participants. All finalists will receive one complimentary ticket to the final. Extra tickets can be purchased at a special VIP discount rate which will be supplied to finalists once chosen.

Care should be taken to provide all information requested accurately and completely.

When submitting documents, applicants should send photocopies, as no documents will be returned.

All entrants must complete an entry form, and submit it, along with a recording (either MP3, MP4 video, CD or DVD, or a link to an online video) of themselves singing (any repertoire is permitted although artsong or oratorio is preferred), a recent colour headshot, a 300 word biography suitable for program use, as well as a brief CV of no more than four A4 pages listing vocal background, experience & previous engagements/ training etc.

Any relevant supporting material (references from teachers or employers, press reviews etc) must be limited to an additional 3 A4 pages, or 4 A4 pages if used in place of a recording.

SUPPLY OF MUSIC BEING USED

Selected Finalists must provide the official accompanist and adjudicators with 4 copies of a legible, bound score (please avoid plastic page pockets where possible) by the date of the final of all items to be performed at the Final. Any cuts should be marked on the scores.

6. Performance and Recording Rights

The Royal Melbourne Philharmonic has the right to video, film, record or photograph all stages of the Competition for archival or promotional purposes, for use on the RMP website or any other media without fee to the singer. All finalists will receive a CD recording of their performance.

Broadcast rights remain with the RMP.

All approaches to the media must be made through and with the approval of the RMP. Contestants will be required to be available for media calls prior to or following the Aria competition by arrangement with the RMP Artistic Director and /or Publicist.

7. Terms and Prizes

Prizes will be announced on the evening of the final by the Chair of the Adjudication panel.

First prize will be a cash award of $2500, plus a professional photographic portrait sitting and package (over $500 value), as well as a paid professional future engagement and recording with the Royal Melbourne Philharmonic and two private coaching sessions with the RMP Chief Conductor.

Second prize will be a cash prize of $1000, with an optional offer of a paid professional future engagement with the RMP and two private coaching sessions with the RMP Chief Conductor.

Third prize will be a cash prize of $750, with an optional offer of a paid professional future engagement with the RMP.

There will also be a conductor's Encouragement Award of $500, awarded by the RMP Artistic Director.

A special People's Choice Award will take the form of a cash prize of $350. This will be judged by the audience.

Other prizes and/or awards, or potential performance engagements will be awarded at the discretion of the judges. These may include language coaching scholarships, entertainment and dining prizes and minor prizes or further engagements.

In the event of unsatisfactory standard of performance, the second and third prizes, and any other minor awards may be not awarded on the unanimous recommendation of the Judges.
